This month's newsletter is dedicated to the remembrance of Clayton Unsworth.

Clayton Unsworth was a student at Expanse Learning who sadly passed away at the start of September, and as a sign of remembrance some of the staff and students of Expanse Learning sent balloons with messages on them up into the air to one of Clayton's favorite songs "Glory, Glory, Man United".

Newsletter

Check out our Launchpad Plus Newsletter. You can read all about what we have been up to. In this newsletter you can read about our news, activities, future projects, our dreams and wishes and important dates.

Activities

What we have been up too:

Throughout the summer the attendees participated in a drumming session each receiving a Level 1 in Street Percussion all attendees enjoyed the session and had lots of fun.

At Launchpad Plus.....

This month we have planned and delivered a successful coffee morning for Macmillan Cancer Research.

In the month of August, some of the members of Launchpad Plus participated in drumming sessions.

In the month of March, the students of Launchpad Plus participated in a wildlife trail in association with The Carbon Landscape Partnership, The Wildlife Trusts and Leonard Cheshire.

The students of Launchpad Plus also celebrated National Pizza Month. They did this by planning and making their own pizzas.

Throughout the month of September, the students of Launchpad Plus planned out and conducted a Macmillan Coffee Morning on the Friday 27th September 2019 and it was well attended by both staff and students. The students at Launchpad Plus raised £134.88 for Macmillan.

Hopes and Dreams:

Some of the Expanse students hope and dream of finding and moving into a place of their own.

Future Projects:

Halloween Planning
(Decorations, face painting etc.)

Important Dates:

31/10/2019: Halloween Party (Launchpad Plus Students) Fancy Dress (Optional).

Macmillan Coffee Morning: The Launchpad Plus students, enjoyed planning the coffee morning, when asked what Macmillan Coffee Morning was and what it means, some attendees said:

“I think it’s a good charity, I don’t know much about it. But it’s for patients with cancer and their families.” (Elle. P).

“I think Macmillan is a good charity, the government should donate more money also. It just shouldn’t be down to public donations.” (Josh. C).

“I like Macmillan because they help people who have cancer, I like the charity. I like the event because it raises money to keep the charity going.” (Chloe. B).

October - Pizza month some of our attendees decided to take part in this choosing to make pizza pin wheels to join in the celebration.

Looking up the ingrediency, method, utensil's, recipe and costings.
