3. Legislation and guidance

This policy is based on advice from the Department for Education on first aid in schools and health and safety in schools, and the following legislation:

- The Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999, which require employers:
 - to make an assessment of the risks to the health and safety of their employees
 - to carry out risk assessments, make arrangements to implement necessary measures, and arrange for appropriate information and training
- The Reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations \(RIDDOR\) 2013, which state that some accidents must be reported to the Health and Safety Executive (HSE), and set out the timeframe for this and how long records of such accidents must be kept
- Social Security \(Claims and Payments\) Regulations 1979, which set out rules on the retention of accident records
- The Education \(Independent School Standards\) Regulations 2014, which require that suitable space is provided to cater for the medical and therapy needs of students

5. First aid procedures

In-school procedures

- In the event of an accident resulting in injury:
 - The closest member of staff present will assess the seriousness of the injury and seek the assistance of a qualified first aider, if appropriate, who will provide the required first aid treatment
 - The first aider, if called, will assess the injury and decide if further assistance is needed from a colleague or the emergency services. They will remain on scene until help arrives
 - The first aider will also decide whether the injured person should be moved or placed in a recovery position
 - If the first aider judges that a student is too unwell to remain in school, parents will be contacted and asked to collect their child. Upon their arrival, the first aider will recommend next steps to the parents
 - If emergency services are called, the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DLS) (or nominated deputy) will contact parents immediately
 - The relevant member of staff will complete an accident report form on the same day or as soon as is reasonably practical after an incident resulting in an injury

When taking students off the school premises, staff will ensure they always have the following:

- A school mobile phone
- A portable first aid kit
- Information about the specific medical needs of students
- Parents' contact details

Dependent on level of risk, risk assessments will be approved by either the Headteacher, Director of Schools or the Head of shared Services prior to any educational visit that necessitates taking students off school premises. There will always be at least one first aider on school trips and visits.
